

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland Stage 3

Answer Key

A) TRUE OR FALSE

1. Suddenly, the baby started to grunt loudly like a cow. T F
2. Alice put it down on the ground sadly. The next moment the pig ran away into the forest. T F
3. The baby turned into a pig. T F
4. Eating different sides of the mushroom had different effects on Alice's size. T F
5. "It is very important to know which way to go," said the Cheshire Cat. T F
6. The Duchess's cook threw a knife at Alice as she went out. T F
7. The Cheshire Cat refused to kiss the Queen's hand. T F
8. Alice liked the Gryphon very much. T F
9. The second witness in the court was the Duchess. T F
10. When the Queen said "Catch that Dormouse! Cut off his head!" the soldiers caught him and cut his head off. T F

B) CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. There was a table under a tree in front of the house. The March Rabbit and the Hatter were _____ at it.
 A) having tea
B) smoking hookah
C) having coffee
D) having dinner
2. First, came ten soldiers with clubs. And last of all came the King and the Queen of _____.
 A) hearts B) diamonds C) clubs D) spades
3. Alice recognized the White Rabbit among _____.
A) the royal children
B) the soldiers with clubs
 C) guests, mostly Kings and Queens
D) the gardeners
4. The Queen asked _____ to take Alice to the Turtle.
A) the Duchess
B) the knave of hearts
 C) the Gryphon
D) the White Rabbit

5. The Gryphon's Classics teacher was _____.
- A) an old crab
 - B) a young lobster
 - C) the White Rabbit
 - D) the Turtle
6. There was a big plate of tarts on the table _____.
- A) in the court
 - B) in the garden
 - C) in the Duchess's house
 - D) in the Turtle's house
7. While the Turtle and the Gryphon were dancing _____ sang the song.
- A) Alice
 - B) the Gryphon
 - C) the White Rabbit
 - D) the Turtle
8. When Alice finished her story. "I never heard that before. Your story is so different. But it sounds stupid," said _____.
- A) the Queen
 - B) the Gryphon
 - C) the Dormouse
 - D) the Turtle
9. The Judge was the King. He wore his crown over his long wig. The jurors were twelve _____. They were writing something busily on the paper.
- A) little animals
 - B) knaves
 - C) footmen
 - D) gardeners
10. The White Rabbit blew three times on the trumpet, and then opened the parchment and started to read _____.
- A) his accusation
 - B) his poem
 - C) his story
 - D) the King's order

C) ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

1. Why was Alice surprised when she saw a White Rabbit?
He was speaking to himself and wearing a waistcoat and had a pocket watch.
2. Where did Alice fall?
She fell down a rabbit-hole.
3. How tall was she when she shrank?
She was ten inches high.
4. What did the White Rabbit do when Alice tried to speak to him?
He dropped what he was holding and quickly ran away.

5. What did the White Rabbit have in his hands?
A pair of white gloves and a fan.
6. What did the animals do to dry themselves?
They have a race.
7. How much of the bottle with no label did Alice drink?
She drank one half of the bottle.
8. What did they throw at Alice?
They threw little stones at Alice.
9. What did the Hatter do with his watch?
He dipped it into the hot tea.
10. What was unusual about the croquet game they played?
The balls were hedgehogs, the mallets were live flamingos, and the soldiers had to stand on their hands and feet to make the arches.
11. How did Alice open the door to the garden?
With the key she had found earlier.
12. Why did the gardeners try to paint the roses in red?
Because the queen wanted red roses and they had planted white roses by accident.
13. Did the soldiers cut off the gardeners' heads?
No, they let them run away.
14. What did the Cheshire Cat do when the Queen asked to bring the Duchess?
He disappeared.
15. Who took Alice to the turtle?
The Gryphon took Alice to the turtle.
16. What did the turtle do when he saw Alice?
He cried and told her to sit down.
17. Who did the turtle dance with?
The Gryphon.
18. Did the Hatter put on his shoes before he ran away?
No, he left without them.
19. Who was the second witness?
The Duchess's cook was the second witness.
20. What did the Duchess's cook bring to the court?
He brought a pepper-box with him to the court.