

Animal Farm Stage 4

Answer Key

A) TRUE OR FALSE

1. Old Major was an old horse with a white strip on his nose. T F
2. Old Major saw a dream in which there were no human beings on earth. T F
3. The Rebellion happened much earlier than the animals had expected. T F
4. Many animals were killed in the Battle of the Cowshed. T F
5. There were Nine Commandments written on the wall of the barn. T F
6. The pigs were the main brainworkers on Animal Farm. T F
7. Snowball was expelled from the farm for stealing food. T F
8. The animals built the windmill successfully at the first attempt. T F
9. The animals never spoke out against Napoleon's new rules in the organization of the farm. T F
10. The pigs lived in the farmhouse and imitated human beings' behaviour and habits whenever possible. T F

B) CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. Who predicted the Rebellion on the farm?
 A) Old Major
B) Snowball
C) Napoleon
D) Benjamin
2. What did Snowball paint on the flag of Animal Farm?
A) A tree B) A hoof and a horn
C) A bird D) A pig
3. How many commandments were written on the wall of the barn?
 A) 7 B) 9
C) 10 D) 8
4. In what way did Napoleon expel Snowball from the farm?
A) He accused him of stealing food.
B) He won a leadership fight.
 C) He ordered his huge dogs to attack Snowball.
D) He accused Snowball of being Jones' agent.

5. How did the animals' lives change after Snowball's exile?
- A) They worked less and ate more food.
 - B) They worked like slaves and were hungry all the time.
 - C) They became lazy and refused to work on the fields.
 - D) They worked three days a week.
6. "I will work harder." Who mentioned this phrase very often?
- A) Benjamin
 - B) Clover
 - C) Squealer
 - D) Boxer
7. What did Moses often mention in his talks?
- A) Sugarcandy Mountain
 - B) His life during Jones' reign
 - C) Other farms in the country
 - D) The news from Willingdon
8. Who followed Napoleon whenever he left the farmhouse?
- A) Squealer
 - B) A cat
 - C) His huge dogs
 - D) All the other pigs
9. Why did Napoleon begin to trade with human beings?
- A) He wanted to earn money for himself.
 - B) He wanted to build a new barn for the animals.
 - C) He wanted to trick human beings.
 - D) He wanted to prove that animals could trade quite as well as human beings.
10. With whom did Napoleon play cards at the end of the novel?
- A) With Mr Whymper.
 - B) With Mr Jones.
 - C) With Snowball.
 - D) With Mr Pilkington and the other farmers of neighbouring farms.

C) ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

1. Which animal sang Beast of England for the first time? What was this song about?
- Old Major sang Beast of England for the first time. It was about the freedom of Animals.
2. What caused the Rebellion on the farm?
- The hunger on the farm caused the rebellion on the farm.
3. How did the animals' lives change after the Rebellion?
- After the rebellion they worked less and had larger portions.
4. Who wrote the Seven Commandments on the wall? What were they about?
- Snowball wrote the seven commandments on the wall. They were about the new rules of the Animal Farm.

5. Why did Mollie leave the farm? Did she do it willingly?
She left the Animal Farm for sugar and red ribbons.
6. What did Napoleon and Snowball always argue about? Whom do you support in those arguments?
They argued about the windmill that Snowball want to build. I support ...
7. Did Snowball ever come back to Animal Farm after his exile?
No, he didn't.
8. Who was Napoleon's own bodyguard? Did Napoleon ever walk alone?
The dogs were his own bodyguard. He never walked alone.
9. What kind of new rules did Napoleon impose as a leader of Animal Farm?
He imposed to work for longer hours and eat less.
10. Did Napoleon's new rules violate the Seven Commandments?
Yes, they did.
11. Who was Squealer? Describe his character.
He was the pigs speaker. He announced Napoleon's orders. He was a liar flatter.
12. How did the animals build the windmill? Did Napoleon and the other pigs help them in that hard work?
Animals built the windmill by great effort and hard work. No, Napoleon and the other pigs never helped them.
13. How was the first windmill destroyed?
It was destroyed by a dynamite.
14. Why did Napoleon and the other pigs move to the farmhouse? How did they explain the reasons for that?
They wanted to live like human beings. They said that the pigs who were the brains of the farm must have a quiet place to work.
15. Did the pigs work and eat as much as the other animals on the farm?
No, they always ate much more than the other animals.
16. What kind of celebrations did the animals have on Animal Farm?
They fired a gun lots of times.
17. Why did Napoleon order the animals to sow the barley? In what way did he plan to use it?
Because he wanted to grow barley to produce beer.
18. Why did Napoleon begin to trade with human beings?
He wanted to make money for himself, but he said that they need money for the windmill machinery.
19. Who took Boxer away from Animal Farm in the van? Did Boxer ever come back to Animal Farm?
The butcher took him away from Animal Farm in the van. No, he never came back.
20. How did the novel end?
It ended with the quarrel of Napoleon and Mr Pilkington as they tricked each other in the game simultaneously. The animals outside looked from pigs to men, and from men to pigs again. But already it was impossible to say which was which