

Robinson Crusoe Stage 2

Answer Key

A) TRUE OR FALSE

1. Robinson Crusoe was the only son in the family. T F
2. He ran away from home because he wanted to have an interesting life full of adventures. T F
3. He made his first voyage on board a ship bound for the Brazils. T F
4. English soldiers saved him from slavery in Morocco. T F
5. Robinson Crusoe went on board a ship bound for Guinea on a fatal date. T F
6. Nobody survived in the terrible storm except for Robinson Crusoe. T F
7. Robinson Crusoe could bring away from the ship only a knife, guns, and powder. T F
8. Robinson Crusoe saved Friday from a shipwreck. T F
9. Robinson Crusoe lived on the island for five years. T F
10. Robinson Crusoe returned to England and got married soon afterwards. T F

B) CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. Where was Robinson Crusoe born?
 A) In Hull B) In Paris
C) In London D) In the Brazils
2. What did Robinson Crusoe want to be at eighteen years old?
 A) A seaman B) A lawyer
C) A judge D) A doctor
3. How did Robinson Crusoe go on board a ship for the first time?
A) He paid for his passage to Guinea
 B) His acquaintance offered him to make a voyage on his father's ship for free
C) He went on board a ship as a cabin boy
D) He went on board a ship without permission
4. Where did Robinson Crusoe become a slave after the pirate attack?
A) In the Brazils B) In America
 C) In Morocco D) On an unknown island

7. How did Robinson Crusoe buy a sugar plantation at the Brazils?
Did he spend his own money?
He sold the lion's skin and all his goods. With that money he bought a plantation. He made good money.
8. Why did Robinson Crusoe decide to go to Guinea again? What did he write in his will?
A captain offered to go to Guinea to bring African slaves to the Brazils. He accepted his proposal. He wrote that he disposed of his plantation and its produce to the captain who took him up at sea and saved his life.
9. How did Robinson Crusoe and other seamen try to save their lives in a terrible storm? How many of them survived in the storm?
When the ship broken in pieces they all got into a boat, and went to the wild sea. Only Robinson survived in the storm.
10. Where did Robinson Crusoe find himself after the storm? Describe the place.
He found himself on a deserted island. There were many trees some goats and turtles. Luckily there were no savages or wild animals.
11. How many voyages did he make to the wreck? What did he bring back from it?
He made twelve voyages to the wreck. He brought goods which would be useful for him like provisions, guns, bullets, powder, clothes, hatchets, nails etc.
12. What kind of habitation did he make in the woods?
He made a little tent for himself.
13. What kind of things did he make for himself during his life on the island?
He made a table, chairs, clay pots and plates, candles, baskets, a hand-made mill, clothes for himself etc.
14. How did he make his food? How long did it take him to make his bread?
First he made clay pots and plates and vessels. This took him two months. Then he made his hand-made mill and ground corn and barley. It was his third year on the island when he made his own bread.
15. How did the footprint on the sand affect him? Was he scared?
He was very surprised. Yes, he was scared.
16. How did he save Friday from death? What did he teach him afterwards?
He killed the three pursuers and saved him.
17. Was Friday a faithful servant? Describe his character.
Yes, he was a faithful servant. He was sincere, faithful, clever and kind servant. He was ready to sacrifice his life to save Robinson's on any occasion.
18. How did Robinson Crusoe help an English captain and his companions in the fight against the mutineers?
First he cut the ropes from their hands and feet and gave them guns. They attacked the mutineers sleeping on the shore.
19. Did Robinson Crusoe have an easy life after his return to England? Was he poor or rich?
He found out that his plantation in Brazil was very profitable. Luckily his partner was an honest man. Robinson sold his plantation to his partner and got a lot of money. He became very rich.
20. How did the novel end?
He married and had three children. His wife died after ten years. He decided to travel with his nephew all over the world.